

Who's Who in Laked

People

Note: depending on the text used, the Lady of the Lake has been called Vivianne or Vivian.

- Aquarius Vivian DuLac
Vivian, the Lady of the Lake
- Arthur "Able" Leroy (Arthur Baer Leroy, A.B.L.); ex-wife Gwynne Benwick (Queen Guinevere); ex-best-friend Lenny Knight (Lancelot)
King Arthur
- Dewin Mervyn
Merlin
- Sydney (Sy) Eckert and his wife, Kay
Sir Ector, who fostered Arthur; his son, Kay or Cai
- Bailey Court, guard at the lake
Balyn, who killed the Lady of the Lake at Arthur's court
- Faye Morgan, Able's step-sister
Morgan le Fay
- Morris Dredding, Faye's nephew
Mordred
- Eve Lake, a business associate
Nineve or Nimue
- Brad Devere, a business associate
Bedevere
- Luther Leroy, Arthur's father
Uther Pendragon
- Lon Wells, Faye's former lover
Accolan, Morgan le Fey's lover, who awakens at an enchanted well
- Yvette, Luther's wife and Faye's mother

Igraine, who married Uther Pendragon; Morgan's mother

- Elaine (the old lady who made the tapestry)

Elaine, who loved Lancelot; this Elaine lived in Lancelot Bay

- Officer John Reeve

A reeve was often a man of law

- Alvin Selwyn, insurance agent

His name means "friend of all"

- Mrs. Steward

The wife of a steward, who runs a castle/inn

- Wayne (bartender)

Gawain

- Tom (waiter) and his son, Mallory

Thomas Mallory was the author of Morte d'Arthur

Locations

- Island Inn Supper Club

- Linn, Iowa: Llyn is the Welsh word for "lake"

- The White Hart bar in Avalon

- St. George College

St. George is the patron saint of England

- Avalon, Minnesota

Where the original curio store is located. All the bays on Avalon Lake are named for knights of the Round Table or characters in Arthurian legend such as Cador, the name of Arthur's dog. Home to the Camelot Cafe and the Queens' Coffee Shop.